Christians' Duty When Statesmen Fail

"Deadlock Is Expression Of Spiritual Alienation"

CANTERBURY'S CALL TO BRITISH AND INDIANS: AZIZ-UL-HUQUE TO SEE RAMASWAMI

(From Our Own Correspondent)
LONDON, February 23.

The Archbishop of Canterbury in a letter to the "Times" to-day said: "Among the pressing pre-occupations of this time, there is some danger that we may forget the seriousness and urgency of the situation in India. It is clear that political deadlock is an expression of spiritual alienation."

"An ordinary Christian has his task here as well as a statesman. Let us at this time be constant in our prayers that God will direct and rule the hearts of both British and Indians so that they may know and do His will."

Special Service On Thursday

Lord Bishop of Southwark and several other dignitaries of the Church are holding a special service of prayer for India on February 25 at noon at St. Martin's in the Fields.

High Commissioner To See Ramaswami

(From A Special Correspondent).
LONDON, Feb. 23.
Following his interview with the Indian delegation representing Hindus, Muslims, Parsis, Sikhs and Christians, to him, the High Commissioner for India, Sir Aziz-ul-Huque is seeing Sir A. Ramaswami Mudaliar, who has just arrived from America.

The India League has arranged a Press Conference for giving to the Press facts leading to Gandhi's fast.

Gandhi's fast gets prominent publicity on the front page in all papers to-day.

WHERE HITCH LIES

The Delhi correspondent of the "Times" says: "Mr. Rajagopalachari claimed that Gandhi had no alternative, while the Viceroy and the Government had. It would have been more reasonable to credit the Viceroy and the Government with equally strong conscience in the matter of their responsibility to India as a whole. The question that worries the Government is Gandhi's refusal to abandon the disobedience resolution which lead to much violence on the part of his sympathisers and supporters."

HANDS-OFF POLICY

The U. S. A. Government, says the "New York Times" Washington correspondent, is fully aware that India is Britain's special problem but he adds, the U. S. A. would not relish any civil disorder which would complicate the task of carrying on the war in that theatre. In authoritative circles it is indicated clearly that the U. S. A.'s attitude is unchanged since the State Department announced that American troops in India were there solely to prosecute the war against Axis—a statement which was interpreted at that time to mean "hands off" policy with regard to Indian Political Problems.

The National Association for the Advancement of Coloured Peoples has cabled to Mr. Churchill appealing to him to liberate Gandhi and stating that the latter's death would be a tragic blow to the faith in the war aims of Britain.

"YORKSHIRE POST" VIEWS

LONDON:—"The Yorkshire Post" in a leader says: "The demand for Mr. Gandhi's unconditional release is essentially and unavoidably a political demand. It could not be granted without setting in motion a train of events gravely prejudicial to India's security and the Allied cause."

MUDALIAR BACK IN ENGLAND

LONDON, Feb. 23.
Sir Ramaswami Mudaliar has returned to England from his visit to Canada and the United States.—Reuter.

BEAVERBROOK ON SECOND FRONT

LONDON, Feb. 23.
The need for the speedy opening of a second front in Europe was urged in the Lords today by Lord Beaverbrook, former Minister of Aircraft Production.

He suggested that the Germans might strike back at the Russian armies in June. The Allies should, therefore, hit first and hit now before the Germans could regroup.

The African campaign had many attractions as the base for an attack upon Europe but Britain had more attractions. From Britain we had equal or better supply routes than Germany and better air facilities.—Reuter.

GERMAN SPOKESMAN ADMITS THEY WERE MISLED ABOUT RUSSIANS' STRENGTH

BERLIN, Feb. 23.
The military commentator General Dietmar in his weekly broadcast to-night said:—

"We did not underestimate the military efficiency of the Russians even before we came to grips with them."

Neither have we overlooked the fact that the Russians built up their armaments with the same lavish use of material as they employed in other fields of activity.

Referring to the Soviet-Finnish war, General Dietmar said: "It would seem that the Russians then consciously kept back their most efficient modern weapons."

When in the summer of 1941 Germany took offensive for preventive purposes, some of their veils fell.

Many, even most of our anti-positions were confirmed.

Now when luck seems to have turned from us to favour the enemy I must repeat that our recent setbacks are in way due to our superiority on the part of the Russian soldier. True they have learned things during this war but so have we."

General Dietmar declared that the Soviet successes were due to the "surprise they have inflicted on us" adding "that will not happen twice."

ITALIAN AIR CHIEF MISSING
ROME: General Enrico Pozzi, 40-year-old commander-in-chief of the Italian Air Force on the Russian front is missing, the Rome radio announced on Monday night.

STOCKHOLM: A Warsaw report states that Reichsleiter Hitler has dismissed Dr. Hans Frank, Governor-General of occupied Poland.

The dismissal, it is reported, was due to the fact that Dr. Frank was not getting on well with other German Governors of occupied lands in Eastern Europe.—India Press Service.

SOVIET SPEARHEADS NEARER TO OREL

SIX OF HITLER'S DIVISIONS FROM WEST BADLY MAULED

MOSCOW, Feb. 23.
Reuter's special correspondent in this morning's despatch says:—The Red Army spearheads have driven nearer to Orel, seizing more strongly fortified townships.

They have widened the wedge driven south of the town and are threatening the only line of communication still open to the garrison.

Today's Soviet communiqué shows that another prong of this drive has penetrated the Axis rear, forcing the Germans to retreat.

Here is also new threat today to the German railroad at Sumy, an important railway junction 90 miles north-west of Kharkov, 50 miles east of Sumy. Soviet troops have taken places and have wiped out a whole regiment of German infantry. These gains have been made despite considerable stiffening of German resistance in the last twenty-four hours.

FATE OF NEW NAZI DIVISIONS

Reports reaching Moscow say that Hitler has switched twenty-two divisions. Nineteen infantry and three armoured—to the eastern front from France, Belgium, Norway and Germany itself. Six of these divisions flung into the past month's battles have already been cut up and suffered serious losses.

SOVIET COMMUNIQUE

advance continued south of Kratnorskaya.

Another sector a swift Soviet thrust occupied an inhabited locality and wiped out one battalion of infantry. Several more places were captured west of Gradyon. North of Kursk the Soviet occupied several strongly fortified places killing 600 and taking prisoners. In another sector, the Soviets penetrated the German rear and threatened their forces with encirclement. The Germans retreated, abandoning valuable war material.

The Soviets continued the advance on the Kuban area, capturing several places.

GERMANS ON RUN?

STOCKHOLM, Feb. 23.
Reuter's special correspondent writes:

The Germans may already be abandoning Dnepropetrovsk one of the bastions of Dnieper line.

Swedish newspapers last night quoting the Moscow radio reported that Russian observation planes had been fully laden trains steaming out of Dnepropetrovsk and Kiev.

COMMUNIST PARTY GREETED RED ARMY

The plenary session of the Central Committee of the Communist Party of India has elected a new working committee. The committee, the master strategist Comrade Stalin, have dealt a fatal blow to Hitler's war machine, and have begun the irresistible final assault for the expulsion of the Hitlerite marauders from the Soviet soil.

A joint mass meeting of the workers of the Mazagon Dock and other companies held on Monday also sent greetings to the Red Army.

New Formula To End Mahatma's Fast

(From Our Correspondent)
NEW DELHI, Feb. 23

Lobby reports mention that Mr. Rajagopalachari and other leaders gathered at New Delhi to put forward a new formula yesterday for ending Gandhi's fast.

The suggestion appears to have been that the Viceroy should send to Poona through an authorised representative evidence in his possession regarding the charge of Congress' responsibility for the disturbances and, if Gandhi desired it, enable him to meet members of the Working Committee to review the situation in the light of this evidence.

Evidently, leaders felt that if such a proposal found favour with the Viceroy, Gandhi might give up his fast.

It is stated that the good offices of a well-known British friend now in New Delhi were sought to communicate the proposal to the Viceroy, but it does not appear that the Viceroy has been his way to agree to the suggestion.

The Washington message to-day explaining the American attitude—particularly Mr. Cordell Hull's statement on Mr. Phillips—has damped the spirits of those who were interpreting Mr. Phillips' statement as an indication of possible American intervention.

STATES' VIEW ON MAHATMA'S FAST

I understand that the Jamsahib of Nawanganar is arriving at New Delhi in a day or two to meet the Viceroy and will put the point of view of the States regarding Gandhi's fast.

EXECUTIVE MEMBERS AT IT

I understand those two Indian members who with Messrs. Sarkar, Aney and Sir H. P. Mody voted in the Viceroy's Council for release of Gandhi have suggested to the Viceroy the reconsideration of the whole question owing to the critical state of Gandhi's health. Unfortunately there has been no meeting of the Council for some days.

The presence of Sir M. Hallett in Delhi today has also roused speculation. One interesting tit-bit which has been the talk in New Delhi is that Lady Srivastava and her daughter were present throughout the Leaders' Conference both days and voted for the resolution to release Gandhi.

(From Our Correspondent).

The Provincial Government has served an order on the "Nagpur Times" this afternoon under Sec. 41 of the D. I. ANEY PRAYS FOR GANDHI

NEW DELHI, Feb. 23.
"Let us all pray for Gandhi!" said Mr. M. S. Aney at the New Delhi railway station talking to a large crowd of friends who had assembled to see him off.

A Wardha message says that in reply to a congratulatory telegram from Prof. Bhansali, Mr. Aney replied:

"I thank you for appreciating this step which I along with my two colleagues, felt compelled to take with the utmost reluctance. Let us hope that the Almighty will show the authorities concerned as well as Mahatma Gandhi the proper course to pursue on a crisis occasion like this and thus save a life which is so useful to the spiritual progress of humanity."

Among other associations joining in demonstrations are students of Madras Provincial Trade Union Congress and District Council of Nagpur and Bhandara, the Indian Christians of Nagpur, the Cadet Club Association, students of Guntur Colleges, fifteen mercantile associations of Masulipatnam, and the Andhra Provincial Christian Association.

Speaking at a college function in Kumbakonam Rt. Hon. V. S. Srinivasa Sastri prayed that the fast may end happily.

Rev. A. Hollis, Bishop of Madras in the course of letter to the organisers of a public meeting proposed to be held in Madras, supports the move for the release of Gandhi.

But the Commissioner of Police refused permission to hold meeting of students held in spite of the ban was dispersed with a lathi charge. Reports of demonstrations and arrest of students have also been received.

No Appreciable Change In Mahatma's Condition, Say Doctors

PUNJAB MINISTER'S PLAIN-SPEAKING: CALCUTTA JUDGE JOINS PRAYERS

BOMBAY, February 23.

The Government of Bombay have issued the following Communiqué: "Report on Mr. Gandhi's health upto this afternoon:—Mr. Gandhi had only broken sleep during the night but has dozed off and on during the day. He appears comfortable."

"There is no appreciable change to record."

Signed by:—
Dr. B. C. ROY,

(THROUGH A. P. AND U. P.)

POONA, Feb. 23.
The doctors examined Gandhi for four hours in the morning and in the afternoon today.

MAHATMA WINS BET

It is learnt he speaks a word or two to the visitors and his attitude towards them is neither apathetic nor sympathetic. He speaks to the visitors generally in "borrowed languages." A Bengali visitor is reported to have lost Rs. 25 some time back in a bet with Gandhi on the question of his knowledge of a Bengali word. Today, however, he is understood to have shown greater interest in his visitors. Those who interviewed Mahatma Gandhi this evening found him cheerful. His mind was quite clear and he recognised without difficulty even those relatives who have not seen him for a long time. His voice was distinct though feeble and he greeted every visitor with a smile.

HE INSISTS ON SPEAKING

The doctors attending on him took the usual precautions to see that he did not strain himself but it is understood that Mahatma Gandhi insisted on speaking for nearly four minutes to Mr. Horace Alexander of the Friends' Ambulance Unit, who conveyed to Mahatma Gandhi a message of love and friendship on behalf of his numerous English friends.

Mr. Alexander was accompanied by his co-worker Mr. Symonds, when he interviewed Gandhi to-day. Both of them are expected to stay here for a few days before leaving for Calcutta.

It appears that Gandhi is still not aware of Mr. William Phillips' statement on the Indian situation and Mr. Cordell Hull's comment on it.

Among the visitors to-day to the Aga Khan's palace were Mrs. Hansa Mehta, Mrs. Jalshree Rajee and Mrs. Shantikumar Morarjee.

Swami Anand, an old associate of Mahatma Gandhi, Mr. Devidas Gandhi and members of the Bajaj family saw Gandhi again to-day, and were with him for a considerable period. Mr. Mathuradas Tricunjee with family also paid a second visit to the Aga Khan's palace.

He was arrested here yesterday.—United Press.

PUNJAB MINISTER'S PLAIN-SPEAKING

A reference to Mahatma Gandhi's fast was made by Sir Chotu Ram, Revenue Minister, Punjab, addressing a meeting of the Jat Kumar Sabha.

He said: "Whatever differences we might have with the methods employed by Mahatma Gandhi, there can be no difference on the ultimate object with which he has undertaken his fast."

At this moment when he is faced with a life-and-death struggle it is the duty of all Indians to pray for his safety."

At the instance of Sir Chotu Ram the entire gathering stood up for two minutes and offered prayers for the safety of Mahatma Gandhi.

A National Duty

"May his life be spared to his country and to humanity and may Providence vouchsafe grace and wisdom to those whom these virtues appear to have fled," observed Mr. Justice, C. C. Biswas, C.I.E., presiding over a meeting of the citizens of Calcutta, held this evening at Shree Visudhanand Saraswati Vidyalaya to offer prayers for Mahatma Gandhi's long life.

Mr. Justice Biswas added: "We have here to fulfil a most solemn duty, a public and national duty. The whole of India is now watching with the gravest concern the developments from hour to hour from Poona. Our hearts are torn with grief. All that is left to us now is to pray to the giver of all good that he may yet spare the life of one whom we have loved and worshipped and would like to love and worship to the end of our days as the greatest mortal walking this earth."

Reports of meetings and processions and the dispatch of telegrams by innumerable organisations have also been received from Berhampore, Jessore, Pabna, Munshiganj and Howrah have been received.

High Court ORDER IN WILL DISPUTE

(Before the Hon'ble Mr. Justice Kania)

Kalkhuru R. Banatwala Plaintiff

Versus

Sorabji R. Banatwala Defendant

One Lt.-Col. Homi R. Cursetji, I.M.S.

deceased, died at Bangalore on 6th June 1942, leaving an estate worth well over a lakh of rupees which he purported to dispose of by his will made on 4th February 1940 appointing the plaintiff his sole executor. He left as his next-of-kin three brothers (including the plaintiff and the defendant), a sister and a son by a predeceased sister at present in New York. On the plaintiff filing a petition for probate of the will of the deceased, the defendant lodged a caveat urging that the will be proved in solemn form and questioning the purported disposal by the deceased in his will of a 1/4 share in a certain immovable property in Bombay which the defendant claimed under his grandfather's will and in respect of which an appeal was pending in the High Court. The defendant was also a bench-clary under the will of the deceased.

The court proposed the grant of probate to the plaintiff. On behalf of the plaintiff

it was argued that the defendant's opposition was frivolous and groundless and evidence was led to prove the will.

His Lordship held that the defendant proved and ordered that probate be granted to the plaintiff.

Mr. J. B. Vachha instructed by Messrs

Wadia Gandhi and Co., appeared for the Plaintiff.

Mr. S. R. Tendolkar instructed by Messrs

Solomon and Co., appeared for the Defentant.

APPEALS AND WARNINGS

Gandhiji has just completed two weeks of his fast, but the most trying week is yet to be gone through. Tuesday's bulletin about his health does not specifically mention any serious change for the worse. But every day of the fast must necessarily make him weaker, and there are seven more days ahead. As these will be most exacting it is to be hoped that visits to him even for mere "darshan" will be rigorously reduced. Even an effort to speak will weaken him. As a rule, no visitor should be allowed in unless Gandhiji is keen on seeing him. He may well have one or two extra days of silence this week.

Every passing day of the fast naturally adds to the anguish of the people and this finds but poor relief in appeals to the Viceroy to release Gandhiji. The resolution adopted unanimously by the public meeting in Bombay on Monday and a similar one adopted by a meeting of Muslim women on Tuesday but feebly express the feelings of the people. Sir Purshotamdas Thakurdas remarked that Government's ways seemed more inscrutable than the ways of providence. The ways are inscrutable only if Government are credited with charity in such a matter. But Sir Purshotamdas stated a plain truth plainly when he added that the refusal to release Gandhiji was a disservice not only to India and Britain but also to the Allied Nations. Nor did Mr. Horniman exaggerate the consequences of a fatal fast when he said that anything happened to Gandhiji there would be a revulsion of feeling like the one following the fast and the death of McSwiney in prison and a great wave of indignation would sweep through even a far off country like America.

Demands for Gandhiji's release are not confined to Indians and non-Indians in England, South Africa and America, though rigorous one-sided censorship prevents one getting full information about these latter. Many Britishers and Americans are doubtless much disturbed by what Mr. Lloyd George calls Government's muddle. To the official plea that Gandhiji and other Congress leaders are responsible for violence and should not expect mercy Mr. Lionel Fielden replies that the Government's statement, while clearly wishing to fasten responsibility for violence on the Congress, obviously fails to do so and that "proofs so far adduced satisfy no Court of Law." He accordingly suggests a judicial enquiry into the Indian civil disturbances before Mr. Gandhiji's fast brings the pot of hatred closer to the boil. Indians would enthusiastically welcome any impartial inquiry at any time. But that should not be allowed to delay Gandhiji's release. Once he is released and is in a position to issue a statement to the world replying to the charges urged against him, that by itself will dispel the smoke-screens raised to obscure the issues before the country. Yet, however, unpalatable such a statement may be to Government, it will at the same time help a settlement. If Government want a settlement. The measure of Government's willingness is given by the Viceroy's rejection of the eminently reasonable compromise suggested by Mr. Rajagopalachari which would have led to Gandhiji giving up the fast.

Russian Race With Time

It was to be expected that faced with a total collapse of their winter line, the German General Staff would fight bitterly for every inch of the field. It is no surprise, therefore, that the Russian advance has apparently slowed down since the capture of Kharkov and that in the Dnieper basins and elsewhere the Germans are not only offering fierce resistance but even counter-attacking wherever and wherever possible. Even so the advance tank forces of the Red Army are now within 20 or 25 miles of Orel and the doom of that key city seems to be virtually sealed now. The Germans are also said to be abandoning Dnepropetrovsk, which is one of the major bastions of the Dnieper line. Will the Russians be able to get astride the river before thaw sets in and crossing becomes difficult? That is the problem which is of most interest to-day. If once the Russians get astride the Dnieper, the final German winter line will be inevitably pressed back to the Dniester.

still discussing for the past several months, with experts, the question of the best design for India. After it was decided upon, he said, they would consider whether at the juncture it would be profitable to have their own locomotive factories or to continue for the war period to obtain them from America. A National Government would have started factories long ago, but the present Government have been busy for months past with the question of the best design.

The Difference

For several years before the commencement of the war the Central Legislative Board in the Railway Board in every debate on the Railway budget to promote the manufacture of locomotives in India. But the one proposal never received the attention it deserved, though it was often stated to be under consideration. The need for more locomotives is now greater than ever. But the Railway Member, stated in the Assembly on Monday that Government were

MAISKY WARNS AGAINST OPTIMISTIC ILLUSIONS

Plea To Allies To Ensure Decisive Defeat Of Nazis This Year

LONDON, FEB. 23. The Soviet Ambassador, M. Maisky, speaking in London to-day uttered a warning against optimistic illusions created by the recent Soviet successes and called on the Allies to ensure the decisive defeat of Germany and her satellites this year.

"However gratifying are our victories and the fine exploits of your Eighth Army it would be a great error to think that Nazi Germany is on her last legs," M. Maisky said in his address. "Twenty-five years of the U.S.S.R. and the Red Army said that the Soviet successes were being won at the price of thousands and thousands of human lives and tremendous destruction in town and country."

"It is natural therefore, that the U.S.S.R. should expect early realisation of the military decisions taken at Casablanca," he continued. "Let us make the year 1943 a year of decisive defeat for Nazi Germany and her satellites."

SOONER THE BETTER

"The sooner the Anglo-American forces begin to deliver hard blows against Nazi Germany in Europe, the sooner will Nazi Germany be placed between two powerful hammer-blows knocking at her from the east and from the west, the sooner will come our common victory and the smaller will be the sacrifices needed for it. The task is great but the forces at our common command are overwhelming. Let us use them in the right way and at the right time."

time. Don't give respite to the enemy, he is too confused." Near M. Maisky on the platform sat high officers of the British and Soviet fighting forces. American and British soldiers mingled with the crowd standing in the hall.

The exhibition tells the British people the story of the U.S.S.R. during the last 25 years. Four hundred photographic panels illustrate the life of the Soviet citizen. There is also a display of photographs of the Stalin prize-winners—leaders in all branches of art, who have won the highest honour their country offers.

ADAM AND EVE ARE EQUAL FOR WAR RISK

LONDON, FEB. 23. Adoption of flat rates of compensation for war injuries for all adult civilians irrespective of sex or occupation is proposed in the report of the Select Committee on Equal Compensation published to-day.

The Committee declares that the proposal that civilian women should be compensated equally with men not only has justice on its side but could be adopted with little practical difficulty and at relatively little cost.

Frankly Speaking

Food Problems

Repeated assurances by Government that fresh supplies of food-stuffs were due very soon eased the situation in the city to some extent, and the long queues before Government grain shops have not been in evidence for some days past. But wheat continues to be hardly available. Government have now raised the maximum retail price of wheat to Re. 1 per seer for the city and the suburbs, and the question is: Where is the wheat to be brought for any price? One can only hope that the higher price may enable Government and the traders to purchase larger quantities from wheat producing provinces like the Punjab. We are also told that in view of large exports of maize from Bombay and the need to conserve stocks in the city the Government of Bombay has prohibited the export of maize and maize products from Bombay without a permit. But the question is why the "large exports" were at all permitted in spite of the admitted and long-felt need to conserve stocks.

Finland Sues For Peace?

The message sent by the Stockholm correspondent of the "New York Times" that Finland has decided to sue for separate peace seems to be based mainly on wishful thinking. It may be that that wishful thinking is shared by a large number of Finnish people themselves. Their plight has progressively worsened and the spectre of famine and disease now haunts that once fair land. But the Finns, like the Italians, are so much in the grip of the Nazis and their Government has become so subservient to Berlin that it is difficult to believe that there is any immediate prospect of a separate peace. The recent virtually unanimous re-election of Dr. Ryti as the President shows that the new cabinet is not likely to strike any new path even though M. Witting is dropped from it. Besides, the Russians will be in no mood to negotiate any peace terms as such; what they will insist upon after their bitter experience of 1940 is unconditional surrender. And considering that Finland has almost willy-nilly participated in the Russo-German war, there will be little room sympathy to be spared for those dupes of Hitler.

CAN MINISTER DISCLOSE HIS ADVICE TO GOVERNOR?

CALCUTTA, February 22. A point of constitutional importance was raised by Dr. Nalinaksha Sanyal (Congress) in the Bengal Legislative Assembly today (when he sought, on a point of order, a ruling from the Chair as to whether the House had a right to know what advice a Minister had tendered to the Governor in relation to a particular matter. The point arose out of a question put by Dr. Sanyal last week when he wanted to ascertain from the Home Minister, Mr. A. K. Fazlul Huq, whether Dr. Suresh Chandra Majumdar, Dr. Satyapriya Banerjee and Mr. Sasanka Sekhar Sanyal had been detained as security prisoners under Rule 26 of the Defence of India Rules with his consent or not. On that occasion the Home Minister had stated that as he understood the constitutional position, the advice given by a Minister to a Governor could not be disclosed. He had promised, however, to look into the question once again to see whether he would be within his rights if he disclosed the information.

Speaking on the point of order raised by Dr. Sanyal, Mr. Huq said to-day that he had tried to ascertain whether the Viceroy's Declaration made on June 1937 defining the position of a Minister vis-a-vis a Provincial Government had been modified in view of circumstances consequent upon war conditions and he (Mr. Huq) had been assured that the declaration stood good.

INDIVIDUAL JUDGMENT

Mr. Huq said that in relation to a matter falling within the sphere of 'individual judgment' of the Governor a Minister had the right to differ from a Governor and had also a right to tell the Legislature, if he so desired, that he gave a particular advice and that that was not accepted. But if the Minister did not desire to let the Legislature know what passed between him and the Governor, Mr. Huq did not think that the constitutional position came to this that the Minister concerned could be compelled by a series of questions to disclose the advice that he had tendered.

The Chief said that the point of order raised by Dr. Sanyal was an important constitutional question and he proposed to give his ruling either to-morrow or the day after.

The Assembly resumed general discussion of the budget to-day. Discussion had not concluded when it adjourned till to-morrow.

SIX FUNDAMENTAL PRINCIPLES OF KEMALISM

By F. R. Atay, Leader of the Turkish Press Mission.

Kemalism showed that it was a pure waste of time for Turkey trying to find a compromise between two civilizations and to create a mixed civilization as the Ottoman Empire tried to do for a century and a half during its long struggle for existence against the western world. It made a definite decision to save the Turkish portion of the Empire which collapsed in this moral uncertainty.

The Turkish nation is a western nation like the French, the Italians, the Swedes, and the characteristics which separate it from the others are only those which exist between western civilisations.

But Kemalism is not made to measure, turned out in a mould and stamped in a die. The regime of Kemalist Turkey was born of its history, the product of its fight for independence and therefore a regime unique to Turkey, having no parallel in any other country.

Kemalism is based on six fundamental principles, symbolised by the six white arrows on the red ground of the flag of the People's party.

These six principles were in the beginning only the axioms of the party, but they figure now in the constitutional law of Turkey and control all the activities of the State and the country in political and economic spheres.

The constitution of Turkey does not prevent the plurality of political parties, but no party may adopt principles contrary to these six constitutional rules which are:

1. To recognise the independence of all nations within the limits of their national territories.

2. To abstain from aggression and intervention in the domestic affairs of other countries.

3. To recognise the equality of rights between nations, i.e., to be free from any discrimination arising from differences of religion, race or colour.

4. To settle all international questions by pacific means and mutual understanding, and to adopt all international institutions based on these principles.

It must be added that Kemalism in adopting the hat as a headgear did not merely seek an exterior resemblance to the western peoples. Kemalism, which in itself is a struggle against false prejudices, bad traditions, and absence of liberty of thought and conscience, wished to free Turkey from the trammels of false religious interpretation which would attribute such and such a costume to such and such a religion.

The Government of Turkey, Kemalism sought out the characteristics of Turkish nationalism, not in exterior signs, but in the development of its national genius.

After this short resume of essential principles, it may perhaps be of value to give some idea of certain other important aspects:

real and perfect equality between men and women. Turkish women vote and are eligible for seats in the Grand National Assembly, and as members of municipal bodies. They can be judges in the law courts, doctors or teachers, and all professions and posts are open to them.

(i) Primary education is obligatory and free.

(ii) The reform of the Turkish language consists in its essentials of this—

There existed in the past a marked difference between the spoken and written language. Arabic and Persian words were employed in the language in accordance with the particular rules of their own grammars. For example, the plural of an Arabic word was formed according to Arabic grammatical rules.

(a) To preserve in the Turkish language certain Arabic and Persian words subject to the rules of Turkish grammar.

(b) To give preference in the Turkish language to words of Turkish origin.

(c) To choose or form new words hitherto unused in the sources of Turkish language and culture.

(d) To adopt scientific and technical terms of Greek and Latin origin which are already in general international use.

(e) To purify the language and nationalise the vocabulary by the use of the Latin alphabet which is the one most suited to the structure of the Turkish language.

The fundamental principles of Kemalism with regard to foreign policy can be summarised as follows—

(1) To recognise the independence of all nations within the limits of their national territories.

(2) To abstain from aggression and intervention in the domestic affairs of other countries.

(3) To recognise the equality of rights between nations, i.e., to be free from any discrimination arising from differences of religion, race or colour.

(4) To settle all international questions by pacific means and mutual understanding, and to adopt all international institutions based on these principles.

"OFF THE RECORD"

Now "off the record," to use an American slang. Applications in tens and hundreds are believed to be pouring in since the last two days in the Private Secretary to the Viceroy's Office and newspapermen are being canvassed to advance the cause of particular persons. The applicants often emphasise the Provincial aspect of the question. For instance, it is claimed that Mr. Sarkar should be succeeded by a Bengalee and Sir Homi Mody by a Bombayite. The applications are reported to be something like the following—

May it please your Excellency: Having been given to understand that the post of three Executive Councilors have fallen vacant, I beg to apply to any one of them. As for my qualifications I have always abused the Congress and the Muslim League and have always advanced the cause of nobody but myself. I have tried my best to create dissensions in the country thereby serving the best interests of my superiors. I am a confirmed believer in 'status quo', so far as it did not apply to myself. As for my educational qualifications, although I am only a failed Matric, I have acquired sufficient proficiency in English by rubbing shoulders with Englishmen at Garden Parties and lunches, which I have been standing to incoming and outgoing Collectors and lately to American and other foreign journalists. I have very generously contributed to War Funds and shall be prepared to contribute 50 per cent of my salary to any cause selected by the Viceroy, if I am appointed an Executive Councilor. The list of my other activities in connection with war effort are not inconsiderable.

One of the most alive forms of my war activities has been to preside over meetings of the various associations created by myself. I have a serious grouse against the newspapers, which have not given adequate publicity to my war activities but the copies of the editions adopted at these meetings are enclosed herewith as my testimonials. If I am fortunate enough to be selected by Your Excellency I solemnly promise never to differ with my Lord and Master on any issue and never to dream of resigning. I hold that Your Excellency is the best friend India has and therefore I could safely surrender my judgment to you.—"Dawn."

system of western music, it realised that in this way the national music would live in western music in the same way as in the ancient classical music lived a real Turkish music. Never has folklore and the literature of a people been so much appreciated as at present.

To-day, when there is no longer any difference between them and other western peoples, the Turks of Kemalist Turkey are more nationalist, more Turkish, one might say, than they were in the times when they differed completely from Europeans, whether in costume or in head gear, or in their artistic and scientific institutions.

"The general point as to whether the Congress Party can be proved guilty of instigating violence lies at the heart of the Indian problem."

"Proofs" so far adduced would satisfy no court of law. Yet it is from this issue that continued imprisonment of leaders of India's largest party and continued deadlock in India and Mr. Gandhiji's fast all spring.

The Government's statement, while clearly wishing to fasten responsibility for violence on the Congress, obviously fails to do so."

At the same time the Russians took the defensive for aggressive purposes and the result is known to the world!

(2) Marshal Timoshenko, accordingly, has been appointed Commander-in-Chief in India, provided he gives an undertaking that British personnel will continue to draw five times as much salary as the Indian.

(3) Secretary of State, Cordell Hull, expressed his concern over Gandhiji's fast to Lord Halifax but that does not mean America is intervening in British affairs.

Whatever the merits of the controversy between Government and Mr. Gandhiji and however sharply divided opinions may be as to the moral or political justification for a fast endangering human life, or as to the attitude of Government, a unanimous gesture on the part of Government releasing him before it is too late, cannot fail to strike a chord of grateful appreciation in the hearts of millions of Indians, who regard him as the foremost Indian of them all, and certainly to touch his own unresponsive heart as an avowed friend of Britain.

Turkish Press Delegation.—To The Editor of "The Chronicle." Sir—Mr. heartiest congratulations to the Turkish Press Delegation which is here through the invitation of the Government of India. I hope it will improve a great deal the relations between the two countries. I wish to draw your attention that similar mission should be requested to visit India from South Africa. Recently the Indian High Commissioner of South Africa stated that the Indians had suffered bitterly there. There are great misunderstandings and explain the true condition of India. It is but natural that both the countries are sure to be sincerely hope that this matter will be favourably considered.—Yours etc. A. M. SARFUDIN BANDERIE.

Our Readers' Views

Why Not Try Him?

To The Editor of "The Chronicle." Sir—The British Government and most of the civilised world have loudly and consistently expressed their disapproval in very strong terms, of Hitler's methods of dealing with those under suspicion by locking them up in his notorious Concentration Camps. The Government of India, therefore, would be expected not to follow Hitler's methods of dealing with their political adversaries by putting them in detention camps, but it would seem that such is not the case in their dealing with men like Mahatma Gandhi and others whom they have kept in detention camps on suspicion.

The Government of India have made it very clear that if any move is to be made to solve the present impasse it should be in the direction of inducing Mahatma Gandhi to give up his fast, or in other words, the Government have declared themselves adamant to all pleadings to release Mahatma Gandhi. On the other hand the correspondence between Mahatma Gandhi and the Viceroy makes it quite clear that the Mahatma is not likely to be swayed from his resolve.

Therefore, would it not be better if instead of pleading with the Viceroy to release Mahatma Gandhi those who wish to save his life would urge the Viceroy to try Mahatma Gandhi on specified charges and prove him guilty of the offence in the proper Court of Law?

If the Viceroy agrees to meet this request the Mahatma perhaps will have no objection to giving up his fast.

If the Viceroy declines to meet this request the world will know where the shoe pinches.—Yours etc.

Mr. Parker's Appeal

To The Editor of "The Chronicle." I seek the hospitality of your columns to urge all members of the R.W.T.C. who can possibly do so, to attend the Annual General Meeting at 6-30 p.m. at Mahalaxmi, on Wednesday the 24th inst. It is more than normally important that they should attend the meeting this year; even if they have already given proxies, it is better that they should be present in person as in the past, resolutions have not always been passed exactly in accordance with the intentions of the donors, and there is a serious risk this year that this may occur again.

I suggest that all members should desist from asking any but really important questions relating to the report for the year. A long meeting dealing with unimportant details rarely produces good results, and the main object on this occasion is to appoint a Committee who will have the confidence of the public for this reason it is the duty of members, who are the Trustees for the public of Racing in Western India, to attend the meeting, and vote with this one object in view.—Yours etc.

A Christian's Appeal

To The Editor of "The Chronicle." Sir—The tragedy connected with Mahatma Gandhi's fast is rapidly moving to its climax. There is no kindly light to dispel the encircling gloom which has settled so heavily on the country.

As one who eschews controversial politics and as a Christian appealing to a Christian Government, I feel—many Britishers share my view—that this is a pre-eminent crisis in which mercy should reason justice.

Indian affairs will bless him that gives and that takes. A great mass of Indian sentiment in favour of a magnanimous Government which will release the Mahatma.

If for no other reason such action on the part of Government would be greatly appreciated by all enlightened Indians. For too long has spirituality been divorced from politics. Indian protests of freedom and peace have demonstrated the close affinity between the two in such world pronouncements as the Atlantic Charter and the United Nations. The Pope's Peace Pacts indeed it would be an irreparable loss if the Mahatma as the great Indian protest of freedom and peace were to be missed from the Peace Conference in the United Nations to make his contribution, at least

Muslim Women Demand Gandhiji's Release

"MOST PRECIOUS IN INDIAN PUBLIC LIFE TO-DAY"

BOMBAY, Tuesday. A resolution expressing deep concern at the fast of Mahatma Gandhi and his health and asking for his immediate and unconditional release was passed this evening at a meeting of Muslim women held at Blavatsky Lodge. Mrs. Lukmani presided.

Mrs. Asmat Latif who moved the resolution criticised the men who complained that Gandhiji had only created trouble and difficulties. He had shown the way and had undergone great ordeals and suffering for propagating the message of freedom and love. It was wrong, she said, if the Muslims complained that Gandhiji had harmed their interests. He was their friend, as much as he was the friend of everyone.

Mrs. Salim said that the death of the Mahatma would be a national loss. She could not imagine that anyone could be so degraded as not to feel the loss of Gandhiji as a personal loss. His aim in life was one—Service.

NEED FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
Mrs. Brelvi said that millions in India loved and revered Mahatma Gandhi. His value was not for India alone, but the whole world. She explained the urgency for his release, for he alone could bring about a solution of the many difficulties with which India was faced to-day.

Madam Sophia Wadia said: "We say to the Government 'It is excellent to have a giant's strength but it is tyrannous to use it like a giant.'"

VOICE OF SANITY AND LOVE

In a world torn by hatred war and chaos, the voice of the Mahatma was the voice of sanity and love. His life was the most precious thing in the public life of India to millions.

But today there was a wide spread feeling of frustration, but hope could not be abandoned, for a kindly providence watched over human troubles and tribulations.

Dr. Mrs. Gilder spoke of the world-value of Gandhiji's ethics and said that he was a world figure.

The speech of Madam Sophia Wadia was translated into Urdu by Mrs. A. A. Fyze.

Other speakers were, Mrs. A. S. R. Chari, Miss Laiq Ali, Mrs. Jabir Ali, Mrs. Khan, Mrs. Babibai Mulji, and Mrs. Lilavati Banker.

DACOITIES, RAIDS AND FIRES IN MIRAJ STATE

MIRAJ February 23.

The 'chavadi' at Shirwad Ichhakranji Jagaji was raided by about 50 persons and set on fire. The records of the 'chavadi' were not damaged as they were already removed.

The 'chavadi' at Dharanguti was burnt down. The 'chavadi' at Pattinai and Karikatti were also burnt down.

The school building at Shirwad was raided and set on fire. Several persons entered the Kulkarni's residence at Belhau-gai and robbed him of the records.—United Press.

The Half-Column "By Dim"

Today is the day of the Turf Club Meeting. I would ask every Club Member who is in Bombay to attend it in person and to see for himself what he should do in the public's and the Club's interest. "The Sporting Times" has spoken of "a small disgruntled minority." Let us see who speaks for this small disgruntled minority and what they have to say. In yesterday's "Sentinel," Mr. Horniman has reproduced two paragraphs from the statement of claim of a Steward in a case for libel against the Editor of the "Punter." This paragraph is the Steward's own interpretation of the allegation made against him. The case never reached a hearing. It was compromised. Mr. Horniman says and this is also the correct public feeling that a man "who is content to leave these charges unrefuted is unfit to be a Steward of the R.I.T.C." And this would apply to any Steward because the Stewardship of the Turf Club is a position of great trust. Let's see what happens today.

Unintelligent conversation, possibly in Delhi: U. S. W. Correspondent: "Say, can you tell me what this Defence of India Act is all about?" Government of India's Publicity Officer: "Well, it's directed against those who try to hinder the war effort." U. S. W. C.: "You mean fellows like this guy.....Tottenham or Tottenham or something." G. of I. S. P. O.: "Are you crazy, Sir?" U. S. W. C.: "You are the one that's crazy. That sort of stuff couldn't do much good to the war effort." (U. S. War Correspondents, please also copy)

New definition of "Justice": "By justice is meant the peculiar combination of circumstances whereby the same man or body of men becomes or become accuser, jailor, prosecutor and judge, with jury and without trial." For kind consideration of the U.S. President to be incorporated in the appendix to his charter of (Allied?) Liberty. (U. S. War Correspondents, please also copy).

Turkish Delegation And Corporation Address
Mr. L. G. Thistle, B.A.L.L.B., Vice-President Girma District Hindu Sabha and Mr. G. B. Parmekar, member of the Workmen's Committee, have issued the following statement:—

"We feel our duty to congratulate the Hindu corporators who absented themselves at the time of the address of welcome to the Turkish Delegation on behalf of the Bombay Municipal Corporation, and the volunteers of the Hindu Sabha and the Hindu Teachers' Day who worked for this movement. It is necessary to point out here that out of the 72 Hindu members of the Corporation only three Hindus were present on this occasion. The population of Hindus in Bombay is three-fourths of the total population of this city. Moreover, the reputation of the Hindustani community was also among the opposers. These facts, therefore, show that the address of welcome was not of a representative character. It must justly be called an address on behalf of the non-Hindus in Bombay. It is not giving an explanation for Mr. Belge's statement at Madras the Turkish Delegation has gained this attitude has strengthened in the Hindu mind the idea that the members of the Delegation were in support of Fascism."

REFRESHES & PERFUMES

WAKE UP YOUR LIVER BILE

Without Casualties—And You'll Jump Out of Bed Full of Vim and Vigor.

Your liver should pour out two pints of bile into your small intestine daily. If this bile is not flowing freely, your food doesn't digest. It just sits in the stomach, and you feel bloated, your stomach is uncomfortable, your whole system is out of order, and you feel sour, sick and the world looks pink.

A more active movement doesn't get at the cause. It takes these famous Carter's Little Liver Pills to get these two pints of bile flowing freely and make you feel "up and up". Harmless, gentle, yet amazing in making bile flow freely. Look for the name Carter's Little Liver Pills on the red package. Refuse anything else.

GANDHIJI'S FAST IS CONFESSION OF POLITICAL WEAKNESS AND PERSONAL STRENGTH

Mahatma's Move Is Desperate And Dramatic Effort To Break Deadlock, Says "New York Nation"

NEW YORK, Feb. 22. The American Magazine "Nation" says in an editorial that Mr. Gandhi's 21-day fast appears to be politically a confession of weakness and personally a token of strength.

"With the turn of the tide of the war and the checking of the Japanese advance, India has unquestionably lost a good measure of its bargaining power, vis-a-vis the British."

Strikes and demonstrations undoubtedly had effect but at no time was there any serious possibility that the British would relax their grip. The stalemate gave every promise of enduring throughout the war.

Mr. Gandhi's latest move may be looked upon as a desperate and dramatic effort to break the deadlock.

His specific demand for unconditional release would appear to be more of pretext than a general hope since he can hardly expect to clear out a surrender on the part of the Viceroy.

The paper says that it believes it was a serious mistake for the British to arrest the Congress leaders in the first place. It continues:—

"What then can Mr. Gandhi hope to gain from his current manoeuvre? A change perhaps to reopen negotiations to find a formula which will enable India to return at least to the status that prevailed at the abortive Cripps mission."

The hope that the British will give support for mediation may be found in the reports that Mr. Gandhi has been given freedom to receive Mr. Rajagopalachari who is believed to be working towards this end.—Reuter.

Nine Million German Officers & Men Put Out Of Action

Red Army Is Transformed Into Army Of Vengeance, Says Stalin

MOSCOW, February 23. M. Stalin in his order of the day said: "The Red Army is an army of defence. It has been created not to conquer other people's country but for the defence of the frontiers of the Soviet land."

But in June, 1941 Hitlerite Germany treacherously attacked our country. From that moment the Red Army became an ARMY OF AVENGE.

The Red Army is entering upon the Twenty-Fifth Anniversary of its existence, at a decisive moment of the patriotic war.

Due to the absence of a second front in Europe, the Red Army has been bearing alone the whole burden of the war.

In three months the Red Army has cleared of the enemy the territory of Voronezh and Stalingrad, regions of Cherkassk, Northern Osetian, Kabardabak, and Kalmuck Autonomous Republics of Stavropol and Krasnodar and the areas of Cherkess, Karachayev, and Adygey autonomous areas and nearly the whole of Rostov, Kharkov and Kursk regions.

Mass expulsion of the enemy from the Soviet country has started.

The balance of forces on the Soviet-German front has undergone a change. Time is working against fascist Germany.

Hitler's Germany enjoyed until lately superiority over the Soviet union in technical equipment and most of all in tanks and aircraft.

But times has changed. The Soviet output of tanks, aircraft and guns has increased. The enemy has sustained tremendous losses especially in tanks, aircraft and guns.

In the three months of Soviet offensive in the winter of 1942 to 1943 alone, the Germans lost over 7,000 tanks, 4,000 planes and 17,000 guns.

The Red Army since the beginning of the war has put out of action about nine million German officers and men, of whom not less than four million were killed in action.

The Rumanian, Italian and Hungarian armies have been completely routed.

In the last three months alone the Red Army smashed 112 divisions, killed over 700,000 of the enemy and took 300,000 prisoners.

M. Stalin explained that the German army came into the war with two years experience but since then the Red Army has become a regular army getting rid of the stupid and harmful tactics of the line and firmly adopting tactics of manoeuvring.

The command of the Red Army has not only the aim of liberating the Soviet land from the enemy but also to allow the enemy out of our country alive". M. Stalin added.

In the name of liberation of our country from the hated enemy, I order: (1). To improve tirelessly military knowledge and to strengthen discipline, order an organisation.

(2). To strengthen blows upon enemy troops. To cut off enemy communication lines, to encircle enemy troops and annihilate them if they refuse to lay down their arms.

(3). To fan the flames of guerrilla warfare on enemy's rear. Therein is the pledge of our victory."

M. Stalin ended his order of the day with greetings to the Red Army men, Red Navy men, guerillas and the Bolshevik Party.

The order was signed "J. Stalin, supreme Commander-in-Chief."—Reuter.

CHINA'S GIFT TO U. S. A.

"From the outbreak of the war between China and Japan in 1937 until Pearl Harbour, America lived on borrowed time. The debt we owe to China for providing those years of grace is one we can never repay. Our Government can repay its debt in part with planes and guns, but each one of us can repay only by doing all we can to alleviate the individual sufferings of the Chinese.—Dr. James L. McConaughy, President of Wesleyan University & head of United China Relief."

Phillips' Statement Baffles Hull

Lloyd George Accuses Govt. Of Muddling

(From Our Own Correspondent).

LONDON, February 23.

At the "Manchester Guardian's" invitation to give his view of the situation created by the latest bulletin on Gandhi's condition, Mr. Lloyd George said he was profoundly concerned about the news.

The thing had been so muddled, he said, that it was now difficult to find a way out.

To a delegation of the India League which conferred with the High Commissioner for nearly an hour at India House the High Commissioner assured the delegation that he would convey to the proper authorities in India the delegation's grave concern about Gandhi's condition.

The members of the delegation introduced by Dr. Ganguli included Mr. V. K. Krishna Menon, Drs. P. C. Bhandari, Sakir Mah moodi, C. L. Katali, Mrs. Handoo and a few students.

At the India League's meeting on February 21 Dr. Sakir Mah moodi presided. On his suggestion telegrams have also been sent to Field Marshal Smuts, the Archbishop of Canterbury, the President of the Methodist Conference, the President of the Free Church Council.

Before the meeting a procession of Indians passed through various parts of the city. The processionists reached Lincoln Inn Fields where thousands gathered to denounce the vandals who a few days ago desecrated Lenin's memorial.

An emergency meeting of the Executive Committee of the Indian Social Club cabled to Gandhi: "Greatly distressed by condition We pray to God you may survive the ordeal and your life spared for further services of the mother country and the entire world."

Indian students of Oxford observed yesterday as day of prayer. When Mr. Amery visited Oxford on Saturday the local Indian Students' Union telegraphed to him urging Gandhi's unconditional release.

HULL BAFFLED

THERE HAS BEEN NO FURTHER DEVELOPMENTS FOLLOWING THE CONFERENCE ON SATURDAY BETWEEN THE UNITED STATES SECRETARY OF STATE MR. CORDELL HULL AND THE BRITISH AMBASSADOR LORD HALIFAX WHEN MR. HULL EXPRESSED CONCERN OVER MR. GANDHI'S SITUATION.

Mr. Hull stating this on Monday said he had not heard during the week-end from President Roosevelt's Personal Envoy to India Mr. William Phillips.

Mr. Hull added he did not know exactly what significance there was in the statement of Mr. Phillips that "discussions were being handled by high officials of the Governments of the United States and Britain."

Experts on India in United States Government are naturally keenly interested in Mr. Gandhi's fast, its implications and possible fatal denouement but the authoritative United States view can be crystallized only in the utterances of Mr. Hull or President Roosevelt.

Unofficially considered, there are no grounds for any belief that the United States might intervene to obtain Mr. Gandhi's release.

In Britain

Mr. Harry Pollitt on behalf of the Communist Party of Great Britain has today sent the following telegram to the Viceroy of India:

"Progressive opinion here is deeply concerned over the increasing gravity of the Indian crisis. We strongly urge the release of Mr. Gandhi and Congress leaders and to open negotiations to end the political impasse with a view to an united settlement in the interests of the United Nations."

A similar telegram has been sent to the Secretary for India Mr. Amery.

In a cable to the Indian Communist Party Mr. Pollitt expressed "warmest solidarity and support" for the India Communist Party's campaign for release of Mr. Gandhi and the establishment of national unity and a National Government.

Students of the Lucknow Christian College at a meeting held this morning.

There was a partial strike in the Lucknow University today. Many students absented themselves in sympathy for Mahatma Gandhi.

On behalf of the Allahabad University the following telegram has been sent to Mahatma Gandhi: "Staff and students earnestly pray your life may be saved for the good of mankind."

Members of the Allgarh Bar was assembled at an extraordinary general meeting today to express general concern and anxiety about Gandhi's grave condition and pray H.E. Viceroy to release him unconditionally. A copy of the resolution which was passed unanimously has also been sent to H.E. Viceroy.

NEW YORK, Feb. 22.

Two United States passenger cargo ships have been sunk in North Atlantic with heavy loss of life, states the United States Navy Department "Communique."

The dead include Army Marine and coast guard personnel. The ships were torpedoed and sunk in North Atlantic by Axis submarines within four days of each other early this month.

Both attacks occurred at night. Both ships sinking within half an hour of being hit. Loss of life was heavy and comprised passengers and ship's crews in addition to service personnel.

Over 600 of the total of over 900 aboard the first vessel are known to be either dead or missing. Next of kin of all casualties have been notified.

An United States Navy Department spokesman stated, he was unable to say whether the vessels were travelling in convoy. It seemed probably they were, since most shipping on the North Atlantic was now organised on convoy basis.

WILL SURVIVORS ARRIVE?

The spokesman added, it was not known in New York whether any survivors had yet reached port, but it was believed if they had not they would be arriving within a day or so.
